

Equality, Diversity & Inclusion Policy

Overleaf Publishers Ltd · Co. No. 15735226 · VAT No. 479581629 · Version 1.0 · July 2026 · chainsawcourses.com

1. STATEMENT OF COMMITMENT

Overleaf Publishers Ltd is committed to promoting equality of opportunity, celebrating diversity, and fostering a culture of inclusion in all aspects of our operations. We will not tolerate discrimination, harassment, or victimisation in any form. This commitment applies to all learners, staff, contractors, and visitors associated with the Chainsaw Courses platform.

2. LEGAL FRAMEWORK

This policy is informed by the Equality Act 2010, which prohibits discrimination based on the following protected characteristics:

- Age
- Disability
- Gender reassignment
- Marriage and civil partnership
- Pregnancy and maternity
- Race
- Religion or belief
- Sex
- Sexual orientation

Overleaf Publishers Ltd will not discriminate against any learner or member of staff on the basis of any of the above protected characteristics.

3. OUR COMMITMENTS TO LEARNERS

- Course content will be reviewed regularly to ensure it is free from bias, stereotyping, and discriminatory language.
- Assessment materials will be designed to ensure that no group of learners is unfairly disadvantaged.
- Reasonable adjustments will be made for learners with disabilities or learning difficulties — see the Reasonable Adjustments Policy.
- All learners will be treated with dignity and respect.
- Complaints relating to discrimination or harassment will be investigated promptly and seriously.

4. ACCESSIBILITY

We are committed to making the Platform as accessible as possible to all learners. Current accessibility features include: high-contrast design options, support for browser-level text scaling, compatibility with screen readers, keyboard navigation for all core platform functions, and closed captions on video content where available. We welcome feedback on accessibility barriers and will endeavour to address them promptly.

5. DIVERSITY IN COURSE CONTENT

The chainsaw and arboricultural sector has historically had low diversity in terms of gender and ethnicity. Chainsaw Courses is committed to producing course materials that actively reflect and support the diversification of the sector. This includes the use of inclusive language, diverse imagery where applicable, and content that acknowledges and addresses the specific challenges faced by underrepresented groups in the industry.

6. MONITORING AND REPORTING

Overleaf Publishers Ltd will monitor learner feedback and complaints data for evidence of discrimination or accessibility barriers, and will report on EDI performance as part of the annual quality management review. Any incident of discrimination, harassment, or victimisation — whether involving a learner or member of staff — will be investigated and addressed in accordance with our Complaints Procedure.

7. POLICY REVIEW

This policy will be reviewed annually or following any relevant change in legislation. All staff and contractors are required to familiarise themselves with this policy and adhere to its principles.
