Overleaf Publishers Ltd · Co. No. 15735226 · VAT No. 479581629 · Version 1.0 · July 2026 · chainsawcourses.com

1. PURPOSE

This policy sets out the grounds on which a student may appeal against an assessment decision on the Chainsaw Courses platform, and the procedure for submitting and considering an appeal. Overleaf Publishers Ltd is committed to a fair, transparent, and impartial appeals process that protects the integrity of the assessment framework whilst respecting the rights of individual learners.

2. GROUNDS FOR APPEAL

A student may submit an appeal on the following grounds:

- Procedural irregularity: The assessment was not conducted in accordance with the published Assessment Policy.
- Technical failure: A confirmed technical fault on the Platform materially affected the student's ability to complete an assessment.
- Adverse circumstances: Circumstances beyond the student's control that significantly affected their performance, and which were not and could not reasonably have been declared in advance.
- Marking error: The student believes there is a clear error in the automated marking of a quiz or mock examination.

Appeals on the grounds of disagreement with the assessed content (i.e., the student believes a correct answer has been marked incorrect) will only be upheld where there is a demonstrable error in the question, answer, or marking criteria.

3. STAGE 1 — INFORMAL REVIEW (0–10 WORKING DAYS)

In the first instance, the student should contact info@chainsawcourses.com within 10 working days of the assessment decision, setting out the grounds for the appeal and any supporting evidence. The assessment will be reviewed by a member of staff not involved in the original assessment. A written outcome will be issued within 10 working days.

4. STAGE 2 — FORMAL APPEAL (10–20 WORKING DAYS)

If the student is not satisfied with the Stage 1 outcome, a formal appeal may be submitted within 10 working days of receiving the Stage 1 response. The formal appeal will be reviewed by a senior member of staff or the Internal Verifier. A written outcome will be issued within 20 working days.

5. STAGE 3 — EXTERNAL APPEAL (IIRSM)

Where the appeal relates to an IIRSM-approved element of the course, and the student remains dissatisfied following Stage 2, the student may refer the matter to IIRSM at www.iirsm.org. IIRSM's decision on course-approval matters is final.
